New York, Dec. 23.—The stock market for the most part continues in a state of hibernation. Practically all of the circulation in today's market was within the stock exchange body itself, without any perceptible share from outside sources. The feature of the day's news was the increase announced in the Lake Shore semi-annual dividend from 3½ to 4 per cent.

The three point drop in Lake Erie & Western was a marked exception among the Vanderbilts. As a Lake Shore dividend increase seemed without encouraging effect on Lake Erie & Western stockholders, on the supposition that the benefit from operation to the controlling company would be a first ronsideration. The yearly statement of the Lake Shore carnings was the subject of widespread comment in connection with the dividend increase, the surplus after charges and dividends (partly estimated) falling to $752,013, compared with $32,72,085 for the previous year. The movement in the Vanderbilts and the appearance of the earnings statement of the varieties of the New York Central to the financed in connection with the extensive terminal improvements projected in this city.

The subject of future railroad bond issues was kept alive by the suppositions as to the disposition of the proposed Rock Island consolidated refunding issue of $250,000,000. Any rumors on this subject were various and conflicting as between the adoption of the plan, its complete rejection and the issue of a separate mortigage on bonded property of the wastern from points.

"Oh, no; I have it; I told you so before. I knew just where it is, but—"
She looked up at him anxiously, but the conductor was obtuse. Perhaps he was not a married man.
"Oh, what's that?" she exclaimed suddenly religible.

There was a swish of skirts as ne looked in the direction indicated. When he looked back at her, wondering, she was holding the ticket out to him.

"Take your old ticket," she cried, hotly, "and I hope you and your mean old road will go to smash!"

Old-Time Actors.

(Chicago News.) At a later time the effect of such masks was not always happy. In the third century a Greek company of actors came to a city in Spain where plays had never been seen before. The honest country folk were struck dumb with amazement and secret horror on seeing the tragedian advance on the stage with his mighty body and immovable face with the enormous open mouth. But when he lifted up his voice and began to speak with the sonorous clang of the tragic declamation there was a general panic among the public. All rushed out of the theatre horror-stricken, as if he had been a demon. rn, 1.09.
